Top hotelier gather for BCHA VIP Dinner

VANCOUVER - Following the success of last year's launch of the BCHA Hotel VIP Leader's Dinner to celebrate the BC Hotel Association's 100th Anniversary, this year's even took place at Vancouver's #1 rated restaurant, The Blue Water Café.

The social event following the Western Canadian Lodging Conference saw 60 top hotel industry leaders attend including such brands as Marriott, Wyndham, Fairmont, Sandman, Travelodge, Canalta, Accor, Days Inn, Red Lion, Coast, Motel 6, Accent Inns and Executive Hotels. Also attending were an number of ownership, development and management companies including Oxford Properties, SilverBirch, Aflific, Superior Lodging, MasterBUILT, Realstar, Manga, Evergreen and AHIP along with other western owners and operators.

James Chase, president and CEO of BCHA, remarked to CLN, "We really appreciate the high-quality event that Jason has put together with the support of our partner sponsors. BCHA is happy to have opportunity to gather so many of key industry leaders and association members and support our industry's cohesion and alignment. We plan to continue this event well into the future",

"It is a great honor to be able to work with BCHA to have the opportunity to gather such a fantastic group of industry leaders.

The dinner serves to provide the opportunity for all to get know each other better in a casual, relaxed environment.

Blue Water Cafe and their team did a great job and they deserve all the praise they receive, and days later I am still hearing fantastic feedback from those that attended", Jason Cheskes stated.

"This year, BCHA has arranged the second dinner to gather all Hotel VIP Leaders and it seems it won't be the last".
